Dear Sylvia,

We are pleased to inform you that your artwork will be included in the Riverside Art Museum's "Women Artists of the Permanent Collection: Mid-Nineteenth Century to Present Day" exhibition, which will be on view at the Riverside Art Museum from January 12 – April 10, 2013.

Heralding some 45 female artists who have held their own within the still largely male-dominated art world, RAM proudly sheds light on their important contributions and multifaceted concerns from the mid-nineteenth century to present day. The exhibition includes work by such artists as: Kate Greenaway, Corita Kent, Doris Rosenthal, Lorna Simpson, Kate Steinitz, Sophie Taeuber-Arp, and Patssi Valdez and Diane Gamboa of the ASCO art collective. Highlighted are artists central to such historical and contemporary art movements as Geometric Abstraction, Abstract Expressionism, Pop art, Performance and Activist art, Identity Politics, Conceptualism, Illustration, California Regionalism, and Muralism, as well as important figures in the local art community.

You are cordially invited to join us for the VIP opening reception for this exhibition, as well as for our Eco Art: Graphic Design for Change exhibition, on Friday, January 25, 2013, from 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. or during the public portion from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. No RSVP is needed, but please contact curator Kathryn Poindexter at (951) 684-7111 ext. 307, or by email at: kpoindexter@riversideartmuseum.org if you have any questions or concerns.

We are very excited to be able to include your work in this important exhibition and we hope to see you along with friends and family on January 25. Please see attached VIP invitation and public reception announcement.

Warmest Regards,

Kathryn Poindexter, Exhibit Liaison / Curator
